No Bank For Him

"I don't put my money in any bank," says Slothful Sam. "My inside pocket is good enough for me and I am going to keep it there instead of letting the other fellow carry it."

But does he carry it there? He does not. The butcher, baker, clothier, and druggist get Sam's money, and they put it in the bank. Sam [don't know where his money goes. But somebody puts it in the bank. Who is putting your money in the bank? If it is good for the other fellow to have money in the bank it's good for you—and the other fellow gets rich at it.

Several visitors attended the St. Patrick's day program Friday afternoon.

Second Freshie—"Sure."

F. F.—"Well, what I want to know is, what are the others here for?"

Teachers meeting was held Tuesday night.

The ninth grade English classes have been making speeches on current topics.

Mr. Drouyor—"If matter were taken to the center of the earth it would weigh nothing."

Bernard—"That's too deep for me."

"Henry VIII tried to get a divorce from the Pope."

Miss Legg visited the High school Friday afternoon.

The first Senior program will be given in the High school auditorium next Friday afternoon. Everybody invited.

Older Boys County Conference.

Produce, sacrifice, live. April 5-6-7 the people of Yale are to entertain delegates from the cities and towns of the county to the fourth annual Older Boys County Conference. About 75 representatives of churches, Sunday schools, Boy Scouts, local Y. M. C. A. groups and other organizations are to meet with such speakers as Dr. Bryan, of Lapeer, R. H. Moore, of St. Clair, A. L. Chamberlain, of Port Huron, and others and discuss the conference theme "Produce—Sacrifice—Live."

Friday night a reception supper will be given, followed by short addresses of welcome and responses, as well as papers on the subjects, "Why we are here," "Why sacrifice?" "Why produce."

Saturday morning there will be short discussions on "How produce," "How sacrifice," "How live." Saturday afternoon will be given over to recreation. Saturday evening stereopticon pictures of the county camp will be shown.

Sunday afternoon meetings are being planned for the men, older boys and younger boys. Sunday evening will be the big meeting of the conference with an address by Dr. Bryan, of Lapeer. It is to be held in the Methodist Episcopal church and is open to all.

The purpose of this conference is the training of leaders, physically, mentally, and spiritually. Not only is it a great benefit to the fellows, but it will be a good thing for the town to have such a group of young men visit our community.

Cites Scripture to Shun Draft

St. Louis, Mar. 9.—A quotation from the Bible—Deuteronomy, chapter 24, verse 5—is cited by a St. Louis man in his appeal for exemption which the district board now has under consideration. This portion says:

"When a man hath taken a new wife he shall not go to war, neither shall he be charged with any business; but he shall be free at home for one year and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken."

This is said to be the first time a quotation of this kind from the old Hebrew law has been so cited.

ASKS FARMERS TO HELP CANNERS

Prescott Says Every Plant Must Have Necessary Material to Meet Demand

Lansing, Mich., March 11.—State Food Administrator George A. Prescott is appealing to the farmers of Michigan in localities where canning plants are located to assist in supplying the raw materials for canning purposes during the coming season.

"The government requirements to feed the army and navy are such that demands are being made on every canner in the United States for a very large percentage of the canned goods packed this year," said Prescott.

"The farmer has the great responsibility and great privilege and the great task of helping to meet these requirements. He will in a large degree determine the final results of the war through his production of foods to sustain the fighting forces and the people of the country."

"For the army and navy there are no substitutes for canned peas, canned corn, canned string beans and canned tomatoes. All canning factories have increased the prices to be paid the farmers for growing these products. The growing of canning crops does not take from the soil the amount of fertility that is taken by farm crops that are allowed to ripen before harvest."

"Our people at home must be fed. The grocers are demanding from the canners the same amount of canned goods as in normal times for home consumption and to feed the men who are working in munition plants. In addition, the government is urging the canners to increase their output to care for the requirements of the army and navy."

"Canning factories can handle more acreage than they did last year, and I am appealing to farmers in localities where canning factories are located to increase their acreage. If you have not been a grower for the canning plants be a grower this year."

"From a financial standpoint, as well as a patriotic duty, you should grow a certain acreage of beans, sweet corn, tomatoes, string beans and every other crop the canner uses. In this way you will serve your country."

Were Delightfully Entertained.

To the Yale Expositor: Mr. Lawrence Menerey, and his class of Sunday school boys were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Cooper, on Monday evening. After a delicious supper, which no one could appreciate more than a bunch of boys, topped off by "just all the ice cream you could eat," the balance of the evening was spent in entertainment.

In the midst of the jollification, Mr. Menerey was presented with a beautiful fountain pen in appreciation of his work in the Sunday school. At not too late an hour the boys departed for their homes, being satisfied that Mr. and Mrs. Cooper's house is the place to have a good time.

Mr. Menerey expects to leave soon to take up his work in the navy. All regret to lose him, but will try to "keep the home fires burning" 'til he returns.

Clothing Man Coming Again

Owing to bad weather and a heavy business at hotel I did not have time at my visit last week to call upon nearly all of my customers at Yale. Am arranging to make another visit in the near future and hope to spend a whole day. Ours is the greatest clothing proposition, we believe, in America. We sell direct from factory to wearer at the wholesale price. Perfect fit or no pay. Wait for my second trip and save one-half. Prices will be higher. E. C. Boice, Agent.

Am in the market for poultry of all kinds and will pay highest market prices for same. Will buy every day. If you have any to sell let me know and I will call. John Sexton, 22-13 Yale, Mich.

Things That Are Wanted

Letter From Will Beers

Morrison, Va., March 14
Wm. H. Learmont,
Yale, Mich.

Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 11th received today, and I am writing to thank you for your promptness in looking up the matter. It surely gave me some relief, as by the way mother wrote I thought it was surely gone. I left my affairs in charge of mother, and as I did not leave things in the best of shape, I presume she will have her troubles.

I would like to get home for a few days before I cross, but I don't believe there is any chance the way things look at present. I don't know how soon we will go, but hope before long.

I have done some traveling since I enlisted. From Detroit I first went to Columbus, Ohio, remaining there only a few days, and then to San Antonio. I was there about a month. From there we went to Waco, Texas, where we remained for about a month. Alex. Campbell was there at that time and I was over to see him. He was about four miles from where I was located. I found him feeling fine and looking great. It seemed good to see some one from home. He is the only one I have met since leaving home that I knew, although there are several Michigan boys in our squadron.

I like the army life fine and believe I will like it still better when I see actual service. I could write a small book about the army life even though I have seen only a small portion of what I expect to see, but suppose this will take up enough of your time.

Thanking you, I am,

Very truly yours,
Wm. E. Beers
